

I support title 2 net neutrality. Anything else gives mega corporations the control over information flow for Americans. Innovation will be stifled and citizens will loose out. This is the largest misstep of an administration hell bent on burying the American citizens voice under corporate cash.